On your day of departure we would ask that you vacate your room by 10.30am (unless otherwise stated or arranged with the management) otherwise you may be subject to an additional charge.

Conferences and Banqueting

The Hotel ask Clients to be aware that these conditions apply to all contracts for the provision of goods and services for accommodation, conferences and banquets to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions, including any which the Client may purport to apply or which may appear in promotional literature.

1. Confirmations

1. All bookings enquiries will be noted. However a booking is not confirmed until receipt of a deposit. To guarantee your reservation a non-refundable deposit is required. The Hotel accepts all major credit and debit cards except American Express.
2. The client must tell the hotel the anticipated number of guests attending not less than 7 days before the function or in the case of accommodation, on booking.
3. Final numbers must be given to the hotel at least 3 days before the function. The amount payable by the client will be calculated on this final number or the number who actually attended, whichever is greater. If the client's booking is accepted by the hotel on the basis that a minimum number of persons will attend the function, the amount payable by the client shall be calculated on such minimum number or number actually attending, whichever is greater.

2. Cancellations

1. All deposits are non-refundable and non-transferable. Should you have to cancel your booking, a charge may be made, calculated as a percentage of the total booking value, according to the scale highlighted below.

Cancellation Period	Percentage
From 3-6 months prior to the event	25
Between 1-3 months prior to the event	30
1 month to 15 days prior to the event	50
14-7 days prior to the event	80
Less than 7 days prior to the event	100

2. The client should confirm all cancellations in writing.
3. Any costs incurred for a particular event, that otherwise would not have been incurred, will be charged in the event of Cancellation unless the hotel is able to mitigate their loss.
4. Cancellation charges will only be levied to the extent that the hotel fails to mitigate its loss in this respect, having used reasonable endeavours to do so. It is possible to take out insurance cover for cancellation charges incurred with certain types of conference. The hotel can provide information about companies that provide insurance on request.

3. Reduction in Numbers

1. Provisional numbers are given by the client prior to the function, the hotel reserves the right to set a minimum number to be charged for the event. Final numbers must be given to the hotel at least 3 days before the function. The amount payable by the client will be calculated on this final number or the number who actually attended, whichever is greater.
2. Any reduction in numbers in the last 28 days before the event will be charged at 50% of the agreed individual rate, unless the "minimum number charged" is applicable.

4. Deposits and Payment

1. The hotel reserves the right to require payment of a deposit at any time before the start of a function. The amount will be determined by the hotel. Should the client fail to pay such deposits within 7 days of request, and never later than 30 days before the function, the hotel may treat the booking as cancelled by the client, and the deposit shall be non-refundable.
2. In certain circumstances full payment may be required before the event (e.g. wedding receptions, golf reservations)
3. Where full payment is required prior to the event, the amount as invoiced must be received 30 days prior to the event.
4. Full credit/debit card prepayment required at time of booking. All bookings are non-refundable in the event of cancellation.
5. With any booking involving a third party i.e. a golf club, taxi company or event company etc, the client will be asked for credit or debit card details to secure the service/item. As soon as the hotel receives confirmation of availability from the third party it will secure the arrangements on the clients' behalf and debit the card with either a deposit or full payment, whichever is applicable. The client is required reimburse the hotel for any expenditure incurred in respect of the bookings including (but without being limited to) any costs, charges or penalties as a result of having to make consequential cancellation of the arrangements with third parties.
6. All payments should be made in pounds sterling (GBP). We accept payment by cash, personal cheque (when accompanied by a valid guarantee card), Switch/Delta, Visa, Mastercard, Diners Club and American Express. Unless on an inclusive package meals and drinks in the restaurant are paid for as taken. No allowance can be made for rooms, meals or other elements not taken.

5. Credit

Credit facilities with the hotel may be obtained on application to the hotel.

Credit facilities must be agreed before the start of the function. All accounts incurred against this agreement will be invoiced immediately after the function. All invoices are due for payment within 28 days of the date of the invoice. Any queries raised will not affect the immediate payment of the outstanding balance.

6. Interest

Interest on overdue invoices shall accrue from the date when payment becomes due, from day to day, until the date of payment, at a rate of 4% above The Royal Bank of Scotland's base rate in force at the time and shall accrue at such a rate after, as well as before any judgement.

7. Behaviour, Etiquettes, Damages & Theft

The Hotel reserves the right to judge acceptable levels of noise or behaviour of the Client, guests or representatives of the Client. The client must take all steps necessary for corrective action. In the event of failure to adhere to management requests, the Hotel reserve the right to terminate the contract and stop the event without being liable to any refund or compensation. The client will be liable for any further costs incurred due to unacceptable behaviour and disruption.

The client is responsible to the hotel for any damage caused to, or theft from allocated rooms or the furnishings, utensils and equipment therein or to the hotel generally by any act, default or neglect of the client, subcontractor, employee or guests of the client and shall pay the hotel on demand the amount required to make good or remedy any such damage/theft.

8. Corkage

No wines or spirits may be brought into the hotel by clients or guests for consumption on the premises, unless prior written consent of the hotel has been obtained and for which a charge will be made.

9. Postponements

Any postponements of confirmed and contracted business will be considered as a cancellation in accordance with condition 2 above.

10. Non-Arrival Charges/Early Departures

Bedrooms reserved in conjunction with functions are regarded as being guaranteed bookings and in the event of non-arrival a charge will be levied on the client for one night's accommodation, unless notified, otherwise the remainder of the reservation will then be cancelled and appropriate cancellation charges will be levied. Similarly the hotel reserves the right to charge for early departures as above.

11. Agents

Should the client contract with the hotel through an agent, the agent acts in that capacity for the customer, and not the hotel. The client therefore accepts full responsibility for payment of the hotel's account.

12. Finishing Times

Functions are required to finish at the time agreed when the booking is made. Extensions to this time may not be possible unless agreed with the hotel manager.

13. Price Variations

In the event of circumstances beyond the Hotel's control (e.g. increases in the standard rate of VAT), the hotel reserve the right to vary the prices quoted to an extent which reflects such changed circumstances.
